Brushstrokes

From Our President:

Dear Artist Friends,

It's hard to believe that our year is almost over! We completed a wonderful year of programs last week with Mark Collins.....many thanks to Kay Flanagan, Jane Matthews and Windy Payne for serving as VP's/program coordinators. I thought our presenters were extremely accomplished and the artists that critiqued our work, very competent. I am already looking forward to 2014!

The Pat Dews workshop was well-attended and got rave reviews! Let's complete the starts we painted in class and bring them for critique next year.

It has been my pleasure to serve as your President for 2013..... The members serving on the Board and Committees have made my job easy. I thank you all so much for continuing to make our Guild a fabulous organization for artists and art-lovers to find like minds and continue to learn.

The new Board members and those continuing to serve will need support from all the members. If you can't serve as an officer or chairperson, please offer to help with specific tasks.....

I am looking forward to our annual luncheon and will remind you of the details in my all-member email closer to the date.

Hoping to see you all there!

Sue :-)
